Location

Tucked away within the heart of this beautiful west Cornwall beachside village, the popular Victoria Inn, Cabin beach café and Peppercorn café are just a few minutes' walk away. So too is the breathtaking sandy beach 320 yards away making this a hugely popular venue for holiday breaks and weekend boltholes. Perranuthnoe is a conservation area hidden away off the A394 south coast road between Praa Sands and Prussia Cove to the east and the iconic St Michael's Mount, beach and historic village of Marazion 2 miles to the west. The area is designated as being an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The larger business and commercial centres of Helston and Penzance are 8 miles and 7 miles respectively, the latter being renowned for its maritime history and its mainline railway station.
