The Farmhouse

The Property

A former farmhouse together with attached farm cottage, both of which would benefit from general updating.

The farmhouse has 3 bedrooms and 2 receptions, whilst the cottage provides 3 bedroom and 3 receptions. Each has a kitchen and either a bathroom or a shower room.

The cottage is mainly uPVC double glazed, whilst the house has some uPVC double glazing and a conservatory.

The two properties would be ideal for those with extended families who want to live together but independently, yet they might equally convert to one adaptable family home.

Outside there are a pair of garages, together with a stone built workshop/store and another garden store.

Extending to the front of both cottages are enclosed gardens with a sunny southerly aspect and a useful greenhouse, beyond which is a level ½ acre grass paddock with tree-lined hedge boundaries suitable for a variety of uses including keeping poultry and small livestock, vegetable growing etc, together with a small parcel of land to the side.
